Cub Scouts Give to Those Often Forgotten

Dallas, Texas, December 3, 2007 - On Saturday, November 17th the Wolf Den of Pack 788 (St Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church) went shopping at Wal-Mart in Cedar Hill to support teens currently in foster care. These Scouts and their families provided stockings filled with essentials (shampoo, lotions, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant etc) and some goodies for those that are often forgotten during the Christmas season. "The Den wanted to do something meaningful this Christmas and we wanted the Scouts to understand there are teens right here in our community that don't have a lot to look forward to on Christmas morning" said Dana Choate, Den Mom. The stockings were donated to Dallas CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) to serve those most in need. Pack 788 serves St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church and School located at 4019 Hampton Road, Dallas TX. Inquiries on the Church, School or Pack can be directed to Elizabeth Belew, Development Director at ebelew@stelizabethofh.org or to the School website at www.stelizabethofh.org. For more information on Dallas Casa visit their website at www.dallascasa.org.
