

In Thanksgiving...

“Unselfish and noble actions are the most radiant pages in the biography of souls.”

~ David Thomas

Of all of the qualities of Thanksgiving, the power to draw people together is among its most sustaining. This is a holiday, special and well-commemorated to express gratitude and appreciation, and as well as a sincere thanksgiving, offered to God for all His blessings, and as well as to the family, loved ones and friends for all their support.

We, at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic School, wish to express our sincere gratitude to our entire community for your unselfish generosity of time, talent, and treasure to ensure the fantastic success of our Fall Carnival where we were able to raise over $20,000.00 for our school!

We give special thanks to this year's carnival chairs, Laura Kubin and Catherine Thompson, along with FVO coordinator Andy Goza and GLR coordinator Michele Mills, who all did an AWESOME job of planning and organizing this FANTASTIC event in a mere two months' time!

We give thanks to those individuals who gave invaluable guidance and help throughout the process, Sandy Walkley, Elizabeth Belew, and Tina Goegel, thus contributing to the success of the event!

Many, many thanks to all of our GLRs (Homeroom Parents) for your wonderful coordination efforts!

Many, many thanks to all of you parents and students for bringing the items necessary for the carnival and for giving your valuable time in working the booths!

Many, many thanks to the MANY Bishop Dunne students and parents who helped with set up, clean up, and with filling in the gaps staffing booths and working so hard to make our carnival a huge success!

We especially give thanks for the many individuals and organizations who made donations to the carnival, enabling us to keep expenses to a minimum:
